AFLSP Scholar – Student Commitment Letter

<Updated March 2016>

This Commitment Letter is to be signed by an AFLSP Scholar (hereafter the "Scholar") participating in the "Asian Future Leaders Scholarship Program" (hereafter the "Scholarship Program") and returned to Bai Xian Asia Institute (hereafter the "Institute").

Eligibility conditions and requirements for the AFLSP Scholar

1. To be eligible for the Scholarship Program, the Scholar must:
   a. remain enrolled at the Relevant University[1]as a full time student for the duration of participation in the Scholarship Program;
   b. not be a recipient of any other scholarship or any form of funding support by a third party, unless otherwise disclosed to and agreed with the Relevant University and the Institute;
   c. not take up any paid employment, full-time or part-time, while enrolled at the Relevant University, unless otherwise disclosed to and agreed with the Relevant University and the Institute.
2. Upon acceptance of the scholarship offer, the Scholar agrees to satisfy the following requirements:
   a. participate in the BXAI Summer Program, a 3-week summer camp to be held in August 2017. Travel, accommodation, and other necessary expenses will be covered;
   b. participate in all mandatory programs as stipulated for the Scholarship Program at the Relevant University;
   c. complete a report in the form as provided by the Institute.

If the Scholar fails to fulfill any of the eligibility conditions and requirements, the scholarship will be terminated immediately. In addition, the Scholar will be required to repay to the Institute any portion of the Scholarship that he/she has received.

I, _____, the undersigned Scholar have read, understood and agreed to the eligibility conditions and requirements mentioned above.
